NEW SERIES, VOLUME 43, NO. 55

Dating Back to 1529

Evangelist Bernie Smith Has Prized Collection of Old Manuscripts

By accident, Bernie Smith of Harrisburg, who has traveled over the world as an evangelist, acquired one of the oldest hobbies known to man—that of collecting old autographed letters and original manuscripts.

And, being a religious man, his interest has turned to the collecting of religious items to the extent that he now has one of the most prized collections of Divines in existence today.

He has items dating from Martin Luther, written in 1529, to Billy Sunday, written in 1936, and in addition more modern day evangelistic writings.

The minister got his first taste for collecting several years ago when, during an evangelistic campaign in Pennsylvania, an editor gave him a yellowed sheet of paper bearing the handwriting of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, one of America's best loved poets.

This so aroused his interest, he began searching for other similar material, especially in the field of religion. His interest in such material became known to collectors and to friends. He has acquired a number of items as gifts, some through purchases, and some through exchange of non-wanted items with collectors who had items he wanted.

He has generously given to the editor of The Register some items of interest to the newspaper profession, including a copy of The London Chronicle dated November 11, 1758; July 23, 1813 edition of the Georgetown, Md., Federal Republican; an original document by Horace Greeley dated Nov. 15, 1854; an original cartoon by Thos. Nast, dated Feb. 7, 1884; and original letters by Whitelaw Reid, editor of the New York Tribune, dated in 1872.

Numbered among the hundreds of letter in the Smith collection are some 300 which were written by early leaders in the Church of England.

Prized are original letters penned by Martin Luther; John Wesley and his brother Charles; Richard Baxter; John Newton; George Whitefield; Charles Finney; T. De Witt Talmage; Lyman Beecher; Henry Ward Beecher; Lyman Abbott and Augustus Toplady, who wrote "Rock of Ages."

Along with these are letters in the handwriting of Charles Spurgeon; Phillip Doddridge (who wrote the words of the song "Oh, Happy Day!"); of Dwight L. Moody; Bishop Asbury, and Phillip Brooks, who is immortalized by his Christmas hymn "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem." He has the indelible hand writing of David Livingstone, world-famed Christian missionary who died in Africa.

Original manuscripts of numerous hymns are in the Smith collection. Among them, are "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" by Ray Palmer; "Yield Not to Temptation" by Dr. H. R. Palmer, who also wrote the music. He has the original script of "Jesus Saves" by its author Priscilla J. Owens; "He Leadeth Me" by Joseph H. Gilmore; "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" by Julia Ward Howe, and not least among the song treasures is a verse penned in the meticulous and painstaking handwriting of blind Fanny Crosby.

In the valued collection are three unusual documents in the original. One is signed by Isaac Watts, remembered for his authorship of the hymn, "Oh, God, Our Help in Ages Past"; one by the famous poet and hymn writer, William Cowper who gave the world the majestic hymn, "There Is a Fountain Filled with Blood"; and one by King James of England who authorized the King James version of the Bible which appeared in 1611.

Evangelist Smith said he has frequently displayed the material during city-wide revivals. He said he plans to present the entire collection as a gift to some college or seminary.

Mrs. Roosevelt Travels To See Red Conditions

NEW YORK (UP) — Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, 73, was on her way to the Soviet Union today "to learn all I can about Russia and conditions there."

The widow of the late President left New York Friday afternoon and planned to stop in Frankfurt, West Berlin, Hamburg and Copenhagen before boarding a plane for Moscow. She said she was traveling as a journalist.

New Legislation Makes Changes in Illinois Sales Tax

New regulations have been issued covering the retailers' occupation tax and use tax in Illinois, based on legislation passed at the last session of the Legislature.

Principal features of the legislation are:

- 1—The 2 1/2 per cent occupation tax and use tax rates have been extended indefinitely, totaling 3 per cent where municipalities have elected to collect the additional 1-1/2 per cent.

- 2—Retailers must now add the use tax to the selling price and collect the tax as a separate item from the price.

- 3—Bills changing the filing date from the 15th to the last of the month were passed, but will not become effective until July, 1959. Therefore, taxpayers must continue to file returns the month following the month for which the return is filed.

- 4—Sales made on or after August 1 are taxable at the full value of the selling price, including the value of tangible personal property taken in trade by the seller in the transaction.

- 5—On repair transactions, the tax may be added to cost of parts only where a separate charge is made for parts, but if no separate charge is made, the entire transaction is subject to tax.

Additional requirements are made in filling out forms, including a separate showing of tax on items taken in trade, considered as use tax in contrast to sales tax on remainder of the transaction.

Feds Raid Gambling in Evansville

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (UP) — United States treasury agents staged surprise raids on four gambling establishments at Evansville Friday and broke up what was termed a "million-dollar gambling syndicate."

At least seven persons were arrested and a large quantity of racing forms, bet slips, pool tickets and other gambling equipment was confiscated by the 18 special agents who pulled the raids.

Arrested and charged with failure to purchase $50 gambling stamps were Edward Loehr, 47, Gerald Fine, 39, John Vail, 46, Norman Claymer, 38, Thomas Sandefur, 48, Melvin Hollerbach, 52, and George Reichen, 42. All are from Evansville except Fine who is from Petersburg.

The raids were pulled on the Talk of the Town Tavern, Loehr's Tavern, Stone Cocktail Lounge and the J & N Tavern.

Reseal City MFT Streets

Work of resealing Harrisburg streets under the motor fuel tax program began Friday, Street Commissioner Sneed Jordan has announced.

The sealing is done with liquid asphalt and chips and the contract was awarded to Brooks and Aldridge of Carmi, low bidder on the work.

Completed Friday were South street, from Granger to Land; Sloan street, from Main to Granger; Land street, from Sloan to Robinson.

Several more streets come under the MFT resealing program and the work will be completed next week if the weather remains favorable, Mr. Jordan declared.

He revealed that the Lincoln street paving project was on schedule and should be completed far in advance of the deadline—Nov. 15.

Hollywood Smut Trial

Stars May Testify Next Week That Magazine Lied About Them

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Maureen O'Hara, Corinne Calvet and Mae West are among the cast of Hollywood stars who may be called for their greatest real-life performances next week when the smut trial of Confidential magazine resumes after Labor Day.

The prosecution hints, but will not confirm, that it stands ready to call any or all of these foot-light queens to the stand — plus some other big names—in its attempt to prove that Confidential lied when it paraded their alleged "sex-capades" in its pages.

Mrs. Sadie Foster Dies In Joliet; Bringing Body Here for Funeral

Mrs. Sadie Foster, 53, died suddenly of a heart attack in her home, 237 State street, Elgin, at 7 p. m. Friday.

She was born April 28, 1904, daughter of William and Mollie Grable Griffith, who survive and are residents of Harrisburg. She leaves, in addition to her parents, her husband, Louie Foster and two daughters, Mrs. Donna Robbs, Jr. of Forest, Mo., and Mrs. Billie Bensch, Cottage Grove. Her five grandchildren, her sister, Mrs. Mildred Goblen, Brookfield, and her brother, Thelie Griffith, Harrisburg, also survive.

The body will be received by the Harrisburg funeral home and funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Detroit Ex-Convict Slain; Robbery Motive

PONTIAC, Mich. (UP) — Robbery was the apparent motive in the gang-style killing of a Detroit ex-convict whose body was found near a building supply company, police said today.

The victim, Earl E. Atwood, 40, ex-Indiana convict, had a long police record and according to his family was a "plunging gambler" who made trips to Las Vegas and Toledo.

Atwood's body, with two bullet holes in the head, was found lying outside the Airport Ready-mix and Building Supply Co. in Waterford Township Friday.

Molotov Sent To Mongolia as Ambassador

Kagnovich Named Manager Cement Plant in Siberia

MOSCOW (UP) — Vyacheslav M. Molotov and Lazar M. Kaganovich are on the way to the remote outer reaches of the Soviet sphere of influence, it was reported today.

An official announcement said Molotov, who is a former premier and foreign minister, has been assigned as ambassador to Mongolia, in the wilds between Russia and China.

At the same time, informed sources said Kaganovich — whose last government post was building materials minister — has been appointed manager of a cement factory at Ashbet, on the Siberian slope of the Ural Mountains.

It had been announced earlier that Georgi M. Malenkov, who was demoted in 1955 from premier to power stations minister is now running a power plant in Kazakhstan.

Western observers noted, however, that there has been no mention of Malenkov's whereabouts or activities since Communist leader Nikita S. Khrushchev assailed him recently as a close associate of purged police boss Lavrenti P. Beria.

Former Foreign Minister Dmitri T. Shepilov, the other principal member of the "Molotov group" which was expelled from leadership in the Kremlin last month for "anti-party" activity was last reported in a Moscow hospital.

Confidential and Whisper magazines and its agents are accused of criminal libel and conspiracy to print obscenity.

Dep. Dist. Atty. William L. Ritz says he will call as rebuttal witnesses next week "some substantial personalities. . . I think I can promise you plenty of action."

He was vague on who the luminaries would be, but answered "maybe" when asked by United Press whether they would include Misses O'Hara and Calvet and the "come-up-and-see-me-sometime" girl.

Dusky singer Dorothy Dandridge, in a suit with Confidential over its failure to publish a promised apology for its story about her, might also be one of the performers held in the wings by the prosecution.

Ashford-Harper Dealers Here For New Edsel

Plans for Grand Opening Will Be Announced Soon

The Edsel — Ford Motor Company's new medium-priced car to be introduced on September 4 — will be sold and serviced through Ashford-Harper Edsel, 112 North Mill, Harrisburg, which today was announced as an authorized Edsel dealership by A. E. Jacobsen, St. Louis district sales manager for Edsel Division. Ashford-Harper Edsel will be located in the building formerly occupied by J. F. Harper & Son Motors.

Plans for a grand opening will be announced soon by J. Fred Harper and Russell Ashford, partners in the new Edsel dealership. Mr. Harper has been in the automobile business in Harrisburg for 20 years.

The dealership facilities, which have a total floor space of nearly 10,000 square feet, include a showroom area and a fully equipped service department. The new dealership will operate a used car department adjacent to the main building at 114 North Mill.

Big Investment
Ford Motor Company has invested $250 million to introduce the new Edsel, Mr. Jacobsen said. The new car — in four series and 18 models — will be marketed initially through an organization of 1200 to 1500 dealers. Eventually, Edsel dealers will number between 2500 and 3000.

Behind the new dealership organization is an Edsel field force of five regional and 24 district sales offices. Home offices for the Edsel Division are in Dearborn, Mich.

Edsels will be produced at six Ford Motor Company assembly plants: Mahwah, N. J.; Somerville, Mass.; Wayne, Mich.; Louisville, Ky.; Los Angeles and San Jose, Calif. Production began July 15.

Included in the four Edsel passenger car series — Ranger, Pacer, Corsair and Citation — are two convertibles and a full line of two and four-door sedans and hardtops. There also will be five Edsel station wagons in the line.

Additional dealers in this area will be announced as sales agreements are formalized.

Mobile Training Units
Edsel Division has initiated a unique plan for training mechanics to service the new car through the use of 12 mobile laboratories which will visit Edsel dealerships across the country.

The mobile classrooms — 30-foot trailers painted Edsel green and white — will be taken to the dealerships where service personnel can study the techniques developed to service the car.

"Our mobile units will travel thousands of miles before introduction day to ensure personalized training of Edsel mechanics for high-quality service to our customers," said Harold N. Johnson, division service manager. "Edsel dealers, at the outset, will not have cars to sell but will be operating a service department even before they introduced the new car line."

Talk on Indians By Peithmann at Tuesday Meeting

Irvin M. Peithmann, archeologist from Southern Illinois University, will give a slide illustrated talk on the Indians of southern Illinois at the Tuesday, Sept. 3, meeting of the Saline County Historical Society. The potluck supper will be spread at the Shelter House in Mahoney Park, in Eldorado, at 6:30 p. m.

Mahoney Park is located on State street across from the water tower.

Mr. Peithmann is the author of "Echoes of the Red Man," 1955, "The Unconquered Seminole," 1957, and other books and studies on the American Indians. He is a native of southern Illinois and has devoted years of study and research to the Indians of this locality.

Under his direction excavations have been made at "Nigger Spring," Dog Town on the Wabash river and numerous other locations throughout southern Illinois. Mr. Peithmann clothes the scientific knowledge of the trained archeologist in language understandable to the layman. His broad knowledge in this field enables him to develop the history of the American Indians from the end of the Glacial Period to the present time.

The September meeting is the last of the field meeting of the season. All members are urged to be present to help develop plans for the coming months. Guests are always welcome at any meeting of the S. C. H. S. A special invitation is extended to residents of Eldorado to join in the meeting.

Senator Thurmond's Filibuster Expensive

WASHINGTON (UP) — Senator Strom Thurmond's record filibuster against the compromise civil rights bill cost the American taxpayers more than $6,468.

The South Carolina Democrat's nearly 25-hour filibuster this week filled 84 pages of the Congressional Record. At about $77 a page, that comes to about $6,468.

Gets 6 Months For Mistreating Army Recruits

Combat Veteran Must Do Time At Hard Labor

FORT CARSON, Colo. (UP) — A combat veteran of nine years Army service drew six months at hard labor Friday for the mistreatment of two recruits.

A four-man court martial board found Sgt. James L. Hobbs, 26, of Gunnison, Miss., guilty of beating Pvt. John Clanton, 17, of Phoenix, Ariz., and subjecting Pvt. Raymond L. Wilson, 22, of Bethel, Kan., to an unusual punishment.

Hobbs, who sat stoically through the day's trial, slumped when the board sentenced him to six months hard labor, reduced him to a private and ordered a forfeiture of $40 from his $106 monthly private's pay.

Hobbs was the first of eight enlisted men from Company I, 39th Infantry Regiment to face trial on brutality charges. The next to appear before court martial will be Sp. 3C Robert E. Neely, 28, Pelzer, S. C., sometime next week.

Their company commander, Captain John Webb, has been charged with failing to enforce and obey regulations, and "with causing the mistreatment" of three basic trainees. But no trial date has been set for Webb.

Clanton testified that Hobbs slug-ged him twice after the trainee had threatened to get out of the Army by any means. Clanton said one of the blows knocked him down, but admitted under cross-examination he was not badly hurt and did not seek medical aid.

The same day, Aug. 4, Hobbs was accused of forcing Wilson to mount a physical training platform and shout for 40 minutes. "Yes sir, I can speak English," because he was absent from his barracks area without permission on that day.

Even Part GOP At Odds on Some Issues

But Session Was Historic Because of Civil Rights Legislation

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Democratic congressional majorities which seldom tried to lay a glove on President Eisenhower in his first administration went to the country today with a record of trying to rough him up.

The lawmakers left more than 100 pieces of legislation for Eisenhower to act upon. The President was scheduled to work on some of it at his office today. He won't start his belated summer vacation until after the Labor Day week-end.

Republican congressional minorities were still riding — over all — on the program of the President, who was re-elected to a second term by a landslide majority only 10 months ago. Even so, GOP individuals and blocs had cut adrift from the administration on such issues as its record peace-time budget, foreign aid program, farm policy and legislation for federal aid for school construction.

The Democratic-controlled, 1957 edition of Congress adjourned Friday afternoon until next Jan. 7. As the lawmakers departed, they were already arguing over the record which Eisenhower described last week as "tremendously disappointing."

GOP members of Congress pitched their criticism of the record on the fact that the legislative branch had failed to act on parts of the Eisenhower program and had given a good overhauling to other parts. But there was no ringing defense of specifics in the program, such as the budget, foreign aid and school programs, which drew about as much opposition from Republicans as from Democrats.

Those issues along with civil rights, tight money and inflation, and public power emerged as the political heritage of the 1957 session. On these latter issues, the Republicans find it more easy to unite behind Eisenhower.

Pass Civil Rights
Whatever was done with the Eisenhower program, the 1957 session was historic because it passed the first civil rights bill to go thru Congress in 82 years. Deft management by Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson enabled the Democrats to develop a kind of unity on this issue, which had divided their party for years, and to give the GOP a bloody nose.

Otherwise, Congress approved the Eisenhower Doctrine to combat Communism in the Middle East and put the United States into the world atoms-for-peace agency, a pet project of the Chief Executive.

It chopped five billion dollars or more, including a billion from his foreign aid program, from his requests for new spending authority for the current fiscal year, but with still undetermined effect on his $71,800,000,000 spending budget.

Two of the President's victories may have been on the negative side. The House pigeon-holed a public power Hells Canyon Dam bill and refused to take up legislation to revise the status of forces treaties—an outgrowth of the "Gillard case."

Labor Day to Be Observed as Holiday

Labor Day Monday is a legal holiday with offices and most businesses closing.

Highlight of the day in this area will be the big, free singing program at the fairgrounds, sponsored by the Trades and Labor Assembly, with business and professional men co-operating.

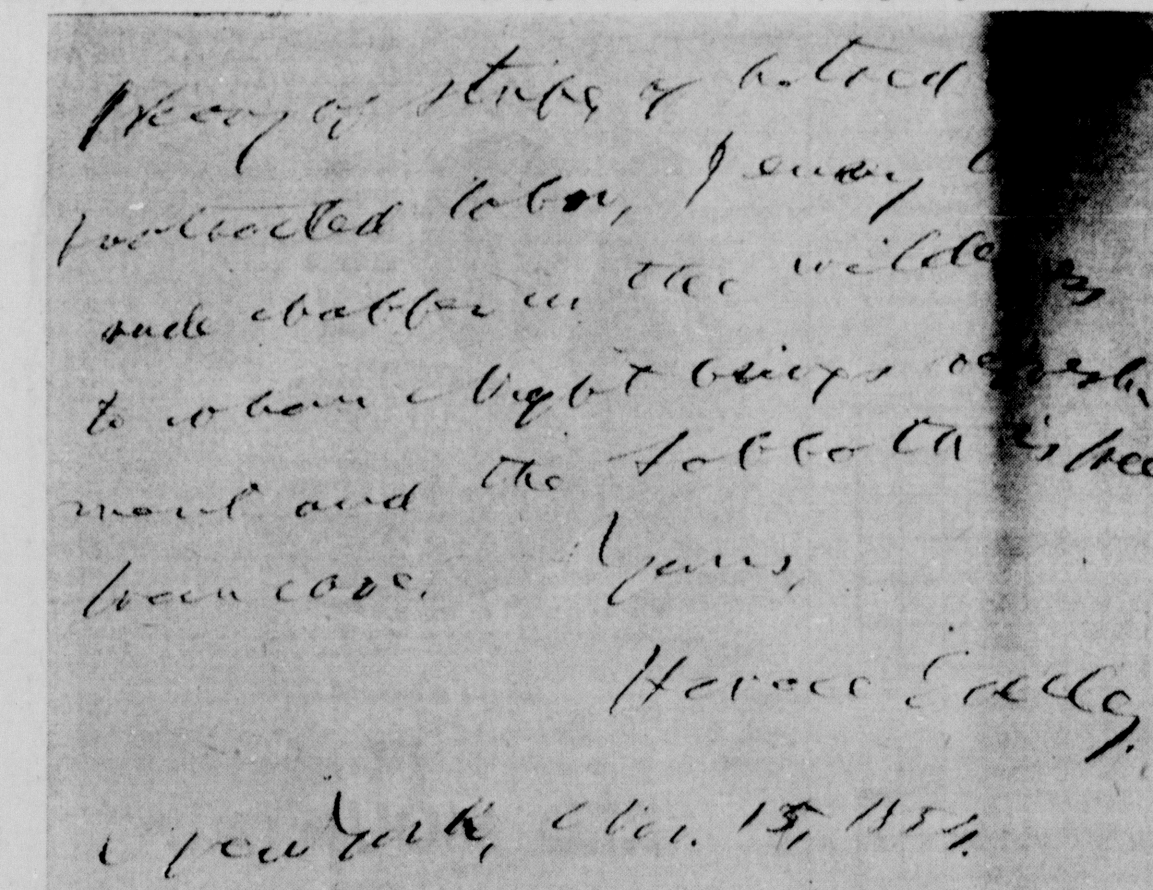

The event will last from 7 p. m. to around midnight with the Blackwood Brothers of Memphis, the Melody Makers of St. Louis and the Klaut Gospel Family entertaining.

There will be no issue of The Daily Register Monday.

WHILE SOME 100 PERSONS WATCH, top dressing fertilizer is spread over a five-acre alfalfa field in a pasture renovation demonstration Aug. 23 at Southern Illinois University. The 0-9-27 mixture, with boron, was worked into the soil by a grassland drill. The demonstration was part of a Soil Conservation Field Day sponsored by the Egyptian Chapter of the Illinois Soil Conservation Society, the University of Illinois Extension Service, and SIU's School of Agriculture. Other attractions included construction of a farm pond, a seeding demonstration, and a farm forestry project.

Veterinarian Suggests Check Sheep for Gains

DIXON SPRINGS — The surest way of having your sheep gain well is to conduct a regular checkup on parasites, reports M. E. Mansfield, veterinarian at the University of Illinois Dixon Springs Experiment Station. Phenothiazine is available to all sheep men for controlling stomach worms, he points out.

Even though ewes were drenched when going onto pasture in the spring, some check on parasites should be made now. Mansfield says it is impossible that stomach worms have built up in both ewes and lambs since the spring drenching.

If your lambs have not already reached market weight, parasites may be the reason, the veterinarian points out. Failure to gain weight, shabby appearance of fleece, diarrhea, weakness and occasional death are all evidence of a build-up of parasites.

Since it is only a short time until breeding season, it's a good time to get ewes into good condition for next year's lamb crop. The ram should also be checked to see that he is free of parasites and in good condition.

Mansfield says a phenothiazine drench will remove most stomach worms, but it can't be expected to remove all of them. To prevent the larval worms from increasing on pasture, he suggests keeping a one to ten mixture of phenothiazine and salt before the animals at all times. Pasture rotation will also help to reduce summer build-up of parasites.

Controlling stomach worms now is one of the steps to planning for a good lamb crop next winter and an aid in getting remaining lambs off to market, the veterinarian concludes.

Aldrich Appointed U.I. Soils Specialist

URBANA—Sam R. Aldrich has been appointed professor of agronomy extension specializing in soil fertility at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, M. B. Russell, head of the agronomy department, announced this week.

Aldrich spent six months at the University of Illinois in 1956 assisting with research in minimum tillage. At that time he was on leave from Cornell University, where he has been on the staff since 1942.

While at Cornell Aldrich worked as crops and soils extension specialist and also did research in this field. He has written many circulars, bulletins and farm magazine articles on crops and soils. He is also the author of a textbook, "Farm Soils, Their Fertilization and Management," for high school and agricultural short course students.

Aldrich received his B. S. degree

Must Maintain Sod Waterways For Effectiveness

URBANA — Heavy rains this summer have damaged many Illinois sod waterways.

Ralph C. Hay, agricultural engineer at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, says that you'll need to extensively repair your sod waterways if they have been seriously damaged by either erosion or by deposits of silt.

You may need to get heavy earth-moving equipment to haul in earth, manure and straw if water erosion has started a gully in your waterway. You'll also have to plan to reseed a renovated waterway this fall.

In other cases, waterways next to corn and soybean fields may have silted nearly full from runoff water. They will have to be reworked to carry water and also be reseeded.

Promote Safety for Children on Farm

It's nice for your children to know what their Daddy is doing while he is working in the field. But don't send small ones to the field alone with their father, warns O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois.

Fathers with their minds occupied and their hands full shouldn't be asked to watch small children in the field or barn, because they need to be watched constantly. A man working with a tractor or milking machine is doing a job that requires his constant attention. Divided attention means that both jobs suffer, and the accident threat to both the man and the child increases. The toddler should be protected by responsible supervision or a fenced play area when farm work moves to the driveway or barn. Children playing around trucks and machinery are often not visible to the operator.

To show children their fathers' farming activities, plan a picnic break for the morning and afternoon. When Mother and the children arrive with a cool, refreshing drink and sandwich or cookies, Daddy can take a break that will let him return to his work refreshed and rested. The children get their questions about the machinery answered by their father. Mother stays long enough for the children to see the machine in operation, and the curiosity of the children is safely satisfied.

The break is not only good for Dad, but for Mother as well. The whole family gains when an accident has been prevented.

Illinois State Fair Observations:
The State Fair is an enlarged representation of the many county fairs that have been going on for nearly two months around the state and will be going on for two or three more weeks in various communities. As would be expected, there just is more of everything at a state fair—more noise, more glamour, more people, more gimmicks, more refreshment stands and side shows, and more exhibits. The Illinois State Fair advertises itself as the nation's biggest agricultural show. At least it is extensive because it is in the center of a state rich in agricultural and industrial resources.

In spite of the fact that crowd-pleasing entertainment has become of increasing importance at fairs to broaden their public appeal, they still are fundamentally an agricultural and educational exposition. They have a special appeal to farm families.

On the program at the state fair is a daily round of contests and free entertainment, appealing to young and old alike. There is enough free entertainment to satisfy all members of the family—horseshoe pitching contests; variety programs in the air-conditioned auditorium of the Illinois building; novelty shows and programs and rest areas provided by farm organizations and a farm magazine; educational exhibits by schools, various divisions of the state government; and many other special events.

More exciting and elaborate entertainment may be enjoyed by paying for it. Hundreds of farm youth, winners in county 4-H events, display their skills—whether it is in exhibiting livestock, in arranging flowers, or in demonstrating abilities as cooks and seamstresses. The junior department is a major fair within a fair.

Literally acres of the fairground are covered with displays of farming machinery, dairying equipment, hay and grain handling and curing equipment, irrigation systems, models of farm buildings, and other types of conveniences over which farmers may drool and dream of better days ahead. Here they may compare prices and special features of various makes and models of machinery and see demonstrations. Usually factories furnish special cut-away models of machines, particularly tractor engines, to give spectators a better understanding of the inner workings of the machinery.

Always popular with farm folks at the Illinois State Fair are the daily shows staged by one of the major manufacturers of farm machinery. Climaxing such a show of the firm's line of farm machines is a square dance performance with four tractors operated by skilled drivers.

Filling the fairground barns and many tents is the exhibition of the Midwest's finest livestock, ranging from Saanen goats to magnificent Clydesdale and Percheron horses. Some 10,000 farm animals of all types were on the grounds at the Illinois State Fair this year. Several hours of tramping through the cattle, sheep, and swine barns would assure one that the number was no exaggeration.

In addition to the show and race horses, the mules and the ponies, there were 11 breeds of sheep, four breeds of goats, seven of beef and six of dairy or all-purpose cattle, and nine of swine competing for ribbons. To watch farmers and their sons and daughters, experienced in grooming and showing the animals, exhibit their livestock before the critical eyes of the judges brings its own type of excitement and interest for the spectator.

Creating a bedlam in the poultry building from morning until night were the crowing roosters who seemed to have their own circle of competition. All shapes, sizes, and colors of chickens were represented in the 1,521 chickens and 905 bantams exhibited at the state fair this year. Also sharing quarters in the poultry building were 858 pigeons, 928 rabbits, and 219 geese of all kinds competing for prize money and ribbons.

"Christmas In August" Celebration Held

The G. A. girls of the North Wilford Baptist church met in the home of Mrs. Naomi Jones for a "Christmas in August" party. There was a decorated tree and each girl brought a gift to lay under it. The gifts are for a missionary, to be distributed to children at Christmas time.

There were games and the girls worked on Forward Steps. Refreshments were served and the following attended: Venetta Duke, Dawn Hargraves, Mary Roberts, LaMonn Jones, Brenda Garrison, and the counsellors Naomi Jones and Maxine Belts.

The meeting opened with a prayer by Brenda Garrison and was closed with a prayer by Maxine Belts.

Picnic for Forwes Held At Cave-in-Rock

Mr. and Mrs. George Forwe and son, George, Jr., North Chicago, have been visiting in the homes of Mr. Forwe's father, N. E. Forwe, and his brother, Edward Forwe, RFD, Harrisburg, for the past week. They are also visiting other relatives and friends. They were dinner guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Dunn, Marion, and have visited Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dunn of Hutsenville.

There was a picnic held in their honor at Cave-in-Rock Sunday and pictures were made to capture some of the beauty of the scenery and to serve as reminders of a happy day. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Forwe and sons, Don and Roy Forwe, N. E. Forwe, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Zimmer, Mr. and Mrs. George Forwe and son, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Dunn and son, Gregory Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dunn.

George Davenport's Grandson Married to Ohio Girl
Miss Diane Hall Zilm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reynold A. Zilm, 22539 Douglas Road, Shaker Heights, Ohio, and Allen Barry Campbell, son of Mrs. Bernice Davenport Campbell, Downer's Grove, Ill., and Clifford B. Campbell, Cleveland Heights, Ohio, were married at 8 o'clock on August 23 in Christ Episcopal church, Cleveland. The Rev. Stuart G. Cole, rector of the Church of the Ascension of Lakewood, performed the wedding ceremony before relatives and friends of the families.

The bride wore a wedding gown of ivory taffeta, fashioned with a wide, square neckline, and cap sleeves, trimmed with re-embroidered Alencon lace across the upper bodice. The bell-shaped skirt was appliqued with garlands of the lace which also encircled the train. She wore her mother's full length rose point lace wedding veil. Miss Sandra Ross, a Smith college roommate of the bride, served as her maid of honor.

The bridesmaids were Miss Susan Campbell, sister of the bridegroom, Donna Clegg, Mrs. Gordon L. Gaddis and Miss Doris Shilliday. Robert E. V. Kelley, roommate of the bridegroom at Kenyon college, acted as his best man. Ushers were his Princeton university roommates, William C. Barnard, Shelbyville, Ind., Fred H. Borsch, Hinsdale, and brothers of the bride and bridegroom, Richard Zilm and John T. Campbell.

There was a reception at the Canterbury club immediately following the wedding.

The bride attended Hathaway Brown school and Smith college. Mr. Campbell belonged to Delta Phi fraternity at Kenyon college and to Cap and Gown club at Princeton university.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have gone to Florida and Nassau on their wedding trip and will be at home to their friends the middle of September in New York City, where Mr. Campbell will enter Columbia University Medical School.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

Little straight pins give temporary security to objects which need fastening. They mark the hem of a dress. They hold papers or other items together. Pins are used for many makeshift purposes or making momentary repairs.

With all of their value these important little fasteners must be replaced if permanence is desired. Many people are satisfied with temporary repairs even if the damage has been to the lives of others.

The only way to make our lives significant is to bind all parts together with the permanent presence of God. Our spiritual activities guide our material way of life to a worthwhile end. They replace temporary human repair with permanent reconstruction.

Card of Thanks

SHEPHERD—We want to express to our friends and neighbors our sincere appreciation for every act of love and sympathy shown to us during these days of our sorrow and bereavement. The family of Mrs. D. E. Shepherd. *55-1

MALONE—Mrs. Jess Malone and family wish to express heartfelt thanks to all who offered assistance in the passing of our loving husband and father, to the membership of the Presbyterian church and the adult Sunday school class, taught by him, also the many floral offerings from friends and relatives. 55-1

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our husband and father, William Allen, who passed away three years ago Sept. 1.

Remembrance is a golden chain. Death tries to break but all in vain.

To have, to love, and then to part is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.

The years may wipe out many things, But this they wipe out never—The memory of those happy days When we were all together.

Sadly missed by his wife, Mrs. Esthel Allen, his daughter, Opal Cobb, grandchildren, Eddie Allen, Delores, and Ramona, also great-grandchildren. 55-1

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Louise Gleyre, who departed this life Sept. 2, 1947.

Not a day do we forget you, dear Dad, In our hearts you are always near.

We who loved you dearly Miss you at the end of ten long years.

Wife, daughter, son and grandchildren. *55-1

200 ACRE STOCK AND GRAIN FARM

My 200 acre farm located 4 miles south of Harrisburg on Route 34, in Pierson community. 175 acres tillable and 140 acres fenced and cross fenced. 100 acres now in corn and 50 acres in permanent pasture. Two modern houses, two good barns, and quonset 30 ft. x 135 ft. used as machine shed or cattle loafing shed. Sufficient wood fence corrals for handling 100 to 150 head of cattle. Part of barn lots are concrete. Two large trench silos 20 ft. x 100 ft. with concrete floors. Two good corn cribs with 3000 bushel capacity.

One of the most beautiful building sites in Southern Illinois on this farm, consisting of 12 acres beautifully landscaped with hundreds of trees including evergreens and good apple orchard. One and one half acre lake stocked with fish. Water supplied from lake to cattle and to barns by automatic water system. Deep drilled well for drinking. Small modern country home on building site. Can easily be enlarged for any size family. If you want a farm and you like to live in the country, you can't help but like this place. Will consider selling building site with or without farm.

C. W. Chiles

SPRINGFIELD. — Clarence W. Chiles, advertising manager for Central Illinois Public Service Co. for the past 35 years, retired today under the company's retirement annuity plan.

Chiles, a native of Murrayville, Ill., joined CIPS in 1922 to direct its advertising program and edit CIPSCO News, the utility's employee magazine. CIPS maintains a regular advertising schedule with approximately 150 newspapers in its service area and with a number of radio and TV stations.

An aviation enthusiast, Chiles is an active pilot and former governor and councillor for the National Aeronautics Association in Illinois. He has had more than 30 years experience in aerial photography and plans to expand this activity on a commercial basis after retirement.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

Alertness at all times when behind a steering wheel is a prerequisite to safe driving. A driver who is not always alert when driving is not a safe driver. The necessity for alertness at the wheel is borne out by the estimate that a driver in heavy traffic on a highway must make 50 decisions an hour.

STAY ALERT! STAY ALIVE!

It is best if a motorist does not drive more than two hours at a time at a high speed. Whenever a motorist feels himself getting tense inside, he should pull off the road until he is relaxed. And, of course, the driver who suddenly finds himself sleepy should also pull off of the road. If a cup of coffee or two does not sufficiently refresh him, he should take a nap.

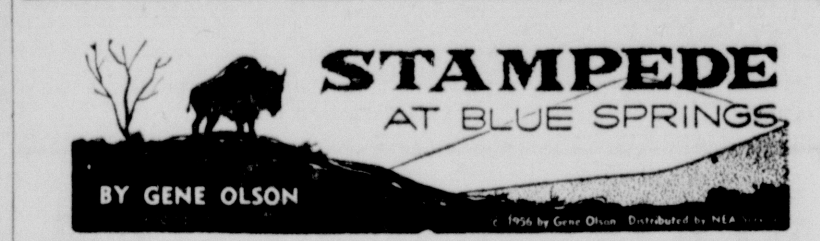

Some drivers prefer to talk to their passengers. These drivers need light conversation—not business or domestic problems—to keep their minds alert to the task of driving. For others this same prescription would prove fatal.

Then I wondered if I'd been a little careless with Pete, if he might cut and run if he got the chance. I decided he wouldn't. It seemed to me that what he wanted, EVANGELIST AND MRS. DONALD KNIGHT of South Bend, Ind., who will begin a revival the evening of Tuesday, Sept. 3, at the First Apostolic church where the Rev. Willard Fritts is pastor. They play a variety of musical instruments and present the gospel in song each evening.

The story: Pike Ambrose has followed Birch Crome to a cave in which Pete Dorsey is held by his captors. Pike got the drop on Birch and Carl Rambeau, but Pete is tied up in the cave and Pike doesn't know how to get the prisoner out.

more than anything else was to have Blanchard right close by him again, at least until he got out of Clement country.

We came out of the ravine high over Buffalo Basin, which stretched away to the river and the north ridge.

I got up on Pilot and helped Dorsey up behind. We headed down the slope, Dorsey hanging on around my waist until he liked to choke the breath out of me. I angled Pilot down the slope and held him back until we got near the bottom. Then he broke into a hard run and I let him go. Dorsey laughed loud. It was the happiest sound I ever heard but I hated the way it seemed to reach out into the night.

I pulled Pilot down and he was soon willing to walk. I was glad that neither of us was a heavy man. I let my eyes range the basin and I told Dorsey to keep a lookout, too. After that, I didn't hear him chuckle any more and his breath shortened up. He said, "You expect trouble?"

"No. Just don't hanker to run into anybody."

Dorsey didn't relax much. I wished I'd kept my mouth shut. I should have known it wouldn't take much to draw him up after what he'd been through. It seemed like three nights before we got to the river. But there it was finally, the wide band of milk sliding through the night. Pilot braced against the bank, stepped through the shallow water and up the north bank. I held him up and looked up on the north ridge.

Straight ahead, up at the top, a horse and rider, black against the sky. Tightness came over me fast and a dead taste came up in my mouth. I watched the rider sitting still up there and tried to decide what to do. Then Dorsey saw him, too, and moaned.

I looked on our back trail. Already another rider had dropped into the basin and was heading toward us. He'd been up on the south ridge. I wheeled Pilot to the east and tried to see along the river into the Narrows. I nudged Pilot to a run, heading east, hoping nobody was in the Narrows, knowing I'd have to pass the Clements' or swing wide. There was nothing else I could see to do.

Hosiery Plays Part In Walking Safety

NEW YORK (AP)—The argument about whether men or women are better drivers may continue indefinitely. But the women have proved they make better pedestrians.

The American Automobile Association reported that in 1957, three out of each four pedestrians killed were men.

Character and clothing helps put the woman pedestrian ahead of the men as the AAA sees it.

The organization said men are more aggressive and therefore take more chances while walking; women, more patient, wait for traffic lights.

Also, says AAA, a man's preference for dark clothes makes it harder for motorists to see him when the sun goes down. But even when women wear dark clothing at night, headlights reflect on their stockings.

'Josiah--Statesman--Reformer'

II Kings 22:1-2; 23:1-5, 25
GOLDEN TEXT: "I am companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts." (Psalm 119:63)

INTRODUCTION — Sometimes a person thinks that it is just about impossible to live a good, clean, Christian life in this wicked world today. Young people today feel that they face temptations that young people in other ages never did have to face.

Our lesson today is about a young man who came out of a wicked family. His whole family background on his father's side was evil. His father and grandfather were both wicked men. However, his mother was a fine woman. She and his pastor always gave him good advice. He followed God's leadership and the advice of his mother and pastor and was quite successful. He had the right spirit. He became a great statesman and reformer. His name was Josiah.

I JOSIAH, THE YOUNG KING (II Kings 22:1-2)
Josiah was only eight years of age when he became King of Israel. He could have been spoiled by such position at this early age. However, he reigned for thirty-one years and was a great king, because "he did that which was right in the eyes of Jehovah."

When he was just sixteen he ordered all the altars to heathen gods torn down and destroyed. What a wonderful thing for young people to cast out all evil gods from their lives! He then rebuilt the Temple. The Temple had been permitted to rot down during his father's reign. He caused his people to begin to worship the one and only true God!

II JOSIAH AND GOD'S WORD (23:1-3)
Josiah gave instructions for all the people to come up to Jerusalem to the Temple. He had the prophets and priests there. Josiah then called for book of the covenant to be read for all to hear.

The book was in the Temple. It had been neglected for years. Many people today have the Book of God's Word, in their homes; but

LITTLE WOMAN

Little girls seem to be "natural-born" little women, right from the start. Laura washes for her dollies just as seriously as if she were tending a "real-life" family. She likes to bake tiny cakes and cookies too, and she has her own way of enforcing discipline when her dollies are "naughty."

Sometimes I'm amazed by her, even if I am her mother. And I am awed at the way God fashioned little girls, so that from the beginning they seem to sense that one day they will be mothers themselves.

When I take Laura to Church with me, she's such a little lady, demure and yet amazingly intent for one her age. I look at her. I see one of God's miracles, and I marvel anew. Watching a child grow is a perpetual lesson in Faith.

Sometimes after Church Laura lines her dollies up on a bench. She tells me that "the dollies are in church."—and I don't feel in the least like chuckling at her childish antics. Rather, I am grateful.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values, democracy, not civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Mrs. Alice Bennett Injured in Fall

Mrs. Alice Bennett, widow of Mike Bennett, former Harrisburg resident now living in Mt. Carmel, had a bad fall Monday, fracturing her shoulder and injuring her right hand. Her daughter, Mrs. Ella Stump, and her granddaughter, Mrs. Doris Durfee, who have just returned from Mt. Carmel, report that she is in good spirits and would like to hear from her friends and former neighbors in Harrisburg. Her address is Wabash General hospital, Mt. Carmel.

Jobe Rites Today

The funeral of William L. Jobe, 85, former resident of Harrisburg who died in Murphysboro, Thursday, was held at the Harrisburg funeral chapel at 2 p. m. today. Rev. W. A. Summers officiated and burial was in Sunset Hill cemetery. Mr. Jobe is the father of Harve Jobe of Harrisburg.

Gets Six Months in Saline County Jail

Harry Leinenbach of Harrisburg was sentenced to six months in the county jail Friday by County Judge Trafton Dennis on a wife and child abandonment charge.

Missile Believed Thor Takes Off on Successful Venture

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Air Force intermediate range ballistic missile Thor has apparently soared on its most successful flight to date.
A rocket, identified by informed sources as the Thor, blasted off its launching ramp here Friday, rose slowly to a height of several miles and then loafed out over the Atlantic.
Witnesses who watched the launching from nearby beaches said the missile was one of the slowest ever tested. It was visible in flight for about 10 minutes before it disappeared over the Atlantic.
As is customary, the Defense Department refused to identify the type of missile or say how successful the test was.

Pleads Innocent to Driving Charge

SHAWNEETOWN, Ill. — Raymond Marvel of Harrisburg pleaded innocent today when arraigned before Gallatin County Judge Joe Hale on a charge of driving intoxicated.

His case will be set for the next term of county court.

Marvel was arrested Thursday afternoon by State Policeman Guthrie Alexander of Harrisburg at the Routes 1-13 intersection in Gallatin county.

Fire Powerful Atomic Detonation

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)— Scientists fired the second most powerful atomic detonation of the summer series early today in an experiment which had to be tempered at the last minute because of weather conditions contributing to the danger of the blast.

A cloud spumed up 25,000 feet above the desert floor and the heat of the blast set fires miles from ground zero on surrounding mountains.

Killed in Crash

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Raymond H. Bowman, 49, assistant circulation manager of the DeKalb
Chronicle, and his wife were killed near here Friday night when their car collided with one which police said had been stolen in Indianapolis.

Return from Funeral

Mrs. Sam Knight and Mrs. Helen Younger returned to Harrisburg from St. Louis, Mo., Friday, where they attended the funeral of John Cutrell, brother of Mrs. Knight.
The funeral services were held Thursday.

Maryland. Gray is shown with Congressman Spence (D) of Fort Thomas, Kentucky, and Major General Parmer W. Edwards, Commander of the 2d Regional Army Defense Command. Gray and Congressman Spence are to get a Nike Site in their Districts and were given a personal inspection tour of the Nike site. Gray said he wanted to learn first-hand about the operation of this ground-to-air defense weapon. After the inspection Gray said the new Nike site at Red Bud in Randolph County, Illinois, would be a great asset not only for National defense purposes but for the economic benefits to be received in the area. The Southern Illinois Congressman said that the people of southern Illinois would be favorably impressed when they saw the Nike site completed. He said it reminded him of a beautifully landscaped park with all buildings and Nike emplacements very neatly situated. Gray said the Red Bud site was for the defense of the metropolitan St. Louis area.
Gray said the Nike site would mean approximately 100 jobs in the area, many of whom will be highly skilled technicians.

Ray Baker Funeral At 2 p. m. Sunday

The funeral of Ray Baker, 76,
Dorris Heights, who died Friday, will be held in the Gaskins funeral chapel at 2 p. m. Sunday. Rev.
Irvin Braden will officiate and burial will be in the Baker cemetery near Mt. Moriah church.

Mr. Baker is survived by his wife, the former Miss Kate Ziegler, and his daughter, Mrs. Jay (Bernice)
Miley. His sisters, Mrs. Barney
Ashe, Harrisburg, Mrs. Clee Bond,
Galatia and Mrs. Grover Abney,
RFD 1, Harrisburg, also survive.

They're Marrying His Daughter Inside; So He Throws Rocks at Church

NEW YORK (AP) — A family doctor from Pleasantville, N. Y., flung four rocks at a stained-glass window in St. Patrick's Cathedral Friday because the Roman Catholic church refused to block the marriage of his daughter.

Dr. Joseph A. Porcello, 51, admitted carrying the stones in his doctor's bag the 25 miles from his home and hurling them at the window, police said.

His "gesture of protest" against the church's refusal to stop the wedding of his daughter, Claire, 19, to her former high school English teacher, Frank Peters, 30, failed to harm the window.

Killed When Car Smashes Culvert

JOLIET, Ill. (AP) — William J.
Delrose, 50, was killed near here
Friday night when his car crashed into a culvert.

Authorities said a car slammed into the rear of Delrose's car on U. S. 30, about two miles east of U. S. 45, plunging it into the culvert.

Kentucky Nine Labor Day Foe Of Local VFW

The Parkette Drive-In Baseball team from Lexington, Ky. will play the local VFW baseball team Labor Day on VFW Memorial field. This is probably the best team to play in Harrisburg for the past several years and in an earlier game trounced the local 11-5. This game will start at 2:30.

Freddie Williams, a former star performer for the locals, is Parkette's third baseman and is also one of their leading hitters. Lexington has an ex-triple A pitcher. They also have two outstanding colored players on their roster. Scoop Brown has eight years of minor league experience and most of their other players have been in the minors.

Harrisburg will have Don Stout pitching with hustling Dick Romonosky catching. Dallas, Willis, Odle, Ziegler, Smith, Sisky, Hay, Wallace, McNew, Emery, Tonazzi, Proctor, Gully and Dailey will complete the locals Monday roster.

A 5-inning preliminary will be played between the Old Timers and the VFW. This game will start sharp at 1 p. m. and will feature such old-timers as Merle Daily, Harold Gully, Frank Logsdon, Aggie Miller, John Henshaw, Paul Emery, Cordell Hill, and Charlie Nelson. Zan Hefner, a pitcher and David Nelson, a catcher, two youngsters, will aid the old timers.

Sunday the locals will travel to Springfield to play the Tigers there in the first league playoff game. The playoff is a one game elimination tournament and each team has a chance to win the 1st place trophy. Ray Tonazzi or Kayo Willis will start this game with Romonosky catching. Dallas, Stout, Odle, Ziegler, Logsdon, Smith, Sisky, Hay, Wallace, Proctor and Emery will make this trip. The team will meet at VFW field at 12 noon Sunday and at 12:30 Labor Day.

Pro Grid Giants Beat Bears 24-17 at Dallas

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The New York Giants drove 98 yards for the only score of the second half to beat the Chicago Bears, 24-17, before 32,000 fans who sweated in 87-degree weather at the Cotton Bowl Friday night.

Frank Gifford brushed over the right side for the winning touchdown to climax a 14-play, third quarter drive.

The exhibition game was billed as a rematch of the game last year in which New York beat Chicago 47-7 for the National Football League championship.

Egyptian silversmiths, as early as 2000 B.C., used primitive forms of "wet" electric batteries in electroplating metals, according to recent archaeological discoveries.

Get-It-Done Harney Put Giants in San Francisco

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor
SAN FRANCISCO (NEA)—When you dig into the story behind the New York Giants' move to San Francisco, you don't look up Horace Stoneham. The Giants' owner doesn't even know where the Ferry Building is.
Nor do you seek out Mayor George Christopher. He's just the front man in the movement and his eye is on the United States Senate, not baseball.
Instead, you go to the man who picked up the ball where and when it counted most. He is Charles Leonard (Get-It-Done) Harney, a blocky, fallstaffian bundle of Irish energy put into the building business. If contractors and engineers in New York and Brooklyn think like Harney—and he has his resources—then the Giants and Dodgers wouldn't be leaving 14 million people with only one major league ball club.

STONEHAM MOVED TO San Francisco because in Harney he found an individual who not only owns land on which to build a park, but has the organization and equipment to build a stadium seating 45,000—and is willing to extend $6 million in credit.

San Francisco required considerably more than the $5 million municipal bond issue the voters okayed in 1954 to build a park and land the Giants. Mayor Christopher turned to Get-It-Done Harney and he found the man who could wrap the history-making franchise shift into one king-sized package.
They sometimes call it the California give-away baseball program, but Harney, the hard-shell, ed business tycoon, isn't exactly contributing over-generously.
"I'm no philanthropist or benefactor," says straight-talking Harney. "This deal is economically sound."

"Harney will have made about $3 million when the job is completed," says Thomas Gray, manager of the Downtown Association of San Francisco, who is credited with getting support for the bond issue. "But I'm for him. Nobody else could have put it over." Harney gets first count on the $5 million bond issue and will get his other $6 million through the sale of five or six per cent revenue bonds.

Dupas, after Win, Seeks Title Fight

MIAMI BEACH (AP)—Young Ralph Dupas added a 66th victory to his impressive ring record Friday night against Johnny Busso and demanded today to know "what the heck I've got to do" to get a title fight with lightweight champion Joe Brown.

"I've been around almost seven years. I've got a good record. I'm supposed to be second-ranked contender. What have I gotta do to get a crack at the title?" The 21-year-old New Orleans boxer asked.

Dupas, who has fought 80 times since he took to the ring in his teens, had several bad moments but weathered Friday night's 10-round television bout against hard-punching Busso, of New York, with only a scratch. He won the bout in the Miami Beach Auditorium unanimously.

There were no knockdowns, but there were several close calls after Dupas got going in the fourth round, roaring off the ropes where he was tagged with a stunning left to angrily pump a withering series of rights and lefts at Busso's head.

West Beats East 20-0 In Prep All-Star Game

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Right half back Ronnie Hartline of Lawton, Okla., and quarterback Bob Conrad of Marianna, Fla., combined forces Friday night to lead the West to a 20-0 victory over the East in the 10th annual All-America high school football game.

The East, relying on the power running of fullback Myron Pottois, of Van Voorhis, Pa., was hampered by fumbles and pass interceptions.

One drive, in the second period, ended on the three-yard line—the big West line stopping the East backs four times inside the five.

Braves Get Assist from 'Cousin' Redlegs; Have Dropped 15 to Leaders

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

It ain't exactly cricket, but the pennant-bound Milwaukee Braves may be strongly tempted to vote their Cincinnati "cousins" a sizeable World Series slice when they sit down to cut the melon about a month from now.

No club in the National League has contributed more to the Braves' present seven-game lead than the Redlegs, who have lost 15 out of 17 to Milwaukee so far this season.

Every pennant-winner generally has its favorite "patsy." Last year, for example, the Dodgers made the Cubs and Cardinals their No. 1 "whipping boys" by taking 16 out of 22 games from each. And over in the American League, the Yankees licked Kansas City 18 out of 22 and have beaten the A's 17 times out of 20 this year.

Four-Homer Barrage
The Braves used a barrage of four home runs Friday night in defeating the Redlegs for the eighth straight time, 9-5. Eddie Mathews, Carl Sawatski, Frank Torre and Wes Covington each homered for Milwaukee as southpaw Warren Spahn notched his 17th victory.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, still nursing an outside chance, humbled the Giants, 10-0, while the Cardinals defeated the Cubs, 2-1, and rookie Jack Sanford of the Phillies beat the Pirates, 4-3, for his 17th triumph.

Kansas City dimmed the White Sox flickering pennant hopes a bit more over in the American League when Alex Kellner stopped Chicago, 3-1. Boston rolled over Baltimore, 8-1. Cleveland scored a 10-inning, 6-5 victory over Detroit, and Washington stopped the Yankees, 4-2.

Drysdale Defeats Giants
Don Drysdale of the Dodgers defeated the Giants for the seventh time in two seasons when he stopped them on three hits. Charley Neal got the Brooks off to a three-run jump in the second when he homered with two on.

Del Ennis' ninth-inning sacrifice fly scored Wally Munn with the winning run in St. Louis' victory over Chicago. Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell struck out 11 batters in gaining his sixth victory.

Granny Hamner drove in two of Philadelphia's four runs, including what proved to be the winning run with a fourth-inning double. Sanford held the Pirates to eight hits, one of which was Dick Groat's seventh homer of the season in the fifth inning.

Kellner struck out eight White Sox batters and yielded only six hits to beat Bob Keegan for his sixth victory. The Athletics gave Kellner enough margin when they scored two runs in the third inning. It was the White Sox' fourth straight setback and left them 6 1/2 games behind the Yankees.

Mantle collected his 34th homer and two singles but they weren't enough to keep Bobby Shantz from suffering his fourth setback. The Senators routed Shantz with a three-run rally in the fifth.

Al Smith's double in the 10th inning scored Vic Wertz with the run that gave the Indians their triumph over the Tigers. Detroit tied the score at 4-4 in the ninth on Charley Maxwell's 22nd homer with one on and then went ahead with a run in the 10th. But three hits, a walk and a sacrifice enabled the Tribe to come back with two runs in their half of the 10th.

DRIVE CAREFULLY

School Time Is Safe Driving Time --- The Child You Save Maybe Your Own!

Follow These Rules For Safe Driving

- Be doubly careful near schools or where children play. Children don't realize the danger and may take chances. That's why you, the driver, must take extra care.
- Keep your car in top mechanical condition. Use chains when roads are slippery.
- Obey traffic laws. Know the traffic laws wherever you travel and don't break them.
- Slow down. Speed is dangerous at any time — doubly dangerous when visibility is cut by rain, fog, or darkness.
- If you drive don't drink—if you drink, don't drive. Remember, death takes no holiday.
- Keep lights and windshield wipers in good condition during rainy or snowy weather.
- Be a courteous driver. Yield right-of-way, even when it should be yours. It's better to stay alive than to be dead right.
- You have to see danger to avoid it.

STOP and WAIT when school buses are taking on or discharging passengers.

KEEP ALERT for children walking to school in the city or on country roads.

GIVE RIGHT-OF-WAY to children at cross-walks. Be sure they arrive safely.

More and more children are on the streets again — some of them going to school for the first time. Children will be crossing the streets, walking along country roads, waiting for school busses. Children are sometimes unpredictable, and it is up to drivers to stay alert and in full command of their vehicles in case an emergency arises. PLEASE drive extra carefully. Watch for children at crossings and on the streets. Give the right-of-way to school busses. Be alert. The children may not see you — be sure you see them!
